

“When lives are on the line seconds count first aid is critical in these initial minutes.”
Jay Inslee

BTTI Workshop

First Aid Awareness Eileen Kelly

Sunday 3rd March 2024
St. Raphaela's Convent, Stillorgan, Dublin
10am – 1pm (9.30 registration)

Cost
€30 for BTTI members/€40 for non-members

Eileen has been qualified in Bio-Testing & Therapy since 1995 with Freddie Fox and since being introduced to alternative therapies her passion for has kept growing. She now works as a BT&T therapist and a first aid trainer.

This informal workshop will give everyone who attends the skills to respond in an emergency situation involving a loved one, friend or client.

Topics covered:

- Scene Safety
- Prioritising Treatment
- Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation
- Common Medical Emergencies
- HSA - First Aid in the workplace/Therapy Insurance required.

Eileen is a registered PHECC First Aid Response Instructor & IHF BLS Instructor, and can advise on the H.S.A. First Aid in the Workplace recommendations, and the need for First Aid Certification for Insurance cover.
