BTTI Winter 2022 Zoom Series

Eoin MacCuirc

Sunday 4th December 2022

10.30 am

Living well in the 21st Century

Eoin MacCuirc has been working in the field of natural health since 1988 after being introduced to Freddie Fox and Bio-Testing, he is currently the president of Bio-Testing and Therapy International. An organisation that was set up by Freddie Fox to inspire, motivate and teach simple and alternative ways to embrace health & wellbeing.

Cost €10.00/£10.00 each workshop

Free to BTTI members

with access to Resources and PowerPoint Presentations

In this 3-sessions workshop we will be looking at the influences that prevent us living to our full potential. With the new year coming these sessions may help you focus and become more aware of the challenges you face and where you need to pay attention to make a difference.

Session 1 - Toxins that can influence your health

Session 2 = A shadow on your health – 29th January 2023

Session 3 - The nature of your good health - 26th February 2023
